Featuring

Live music by Jose Luis Rodriguez.

BACKSTAGE WEEKLY described JOSE LUIS RODRIGUEZ as a harpist who projects "sheer beauty with his fantasy arrangements on the harp which are in a league of their own. At times, this musical prodigy seems to hear things that none of us mortals hears and the audience is transfixed by the magic."

Born in Puerto Rico, JOSE LUIS first began playing the harp at the age of ten, and after discovering the lush sounds of the harp, he began serious studies with Maestro Jose Serrano in San Juan. He became well known as a prodigious talent and guest appearances included special performances for dignitaries at LA FORTALEZA, the

State Residence of the Governor of Puerto Rico, for the RICKY MARTIN FOUNDATION, at the request of Ricky Martin, and at a reception honoring MIKAEL GORBACHEV, the former President of the USSR. After studying with the world renowned Cuban harpist and composer, Alfredo Rolando Ortiz in Los Angeles, JOSE LUIS moved to New York where he has performed to enthusiastic audiences and rave reviews. He won NEW YORK THEATER SCENE CRITIC'S CHOICE AWARD and he was named OUTSTANDING CABARET ARTIST by BACKSTAGE WEEKLY. His repertoire includes traditional wedding selections, classical, pop, Latin, Spanish, and Brazilian classics, Broadway, and hits from the Great American Songbook. Some of his most requested improvisations include his own sweeping arrangements of many romantic classics including: "HOW DO YOU KEEP The MUSIC PLAYING," "AUTUMN LEAVES", "UNFORGETTABLE" and a rich array of Latin Classics including such beloved songs as "BESAME MUCHO" and "OBSESION". (Jose will be playing approximately from 2 PM - 4 PM)
